Memorial & Recognition Program

Friends of Lee Richardson Zoo

Dedicated to improving your zoo!

A memorial gift to Lee Richardson Zoo is a thoughtful and creative way to remember and honor a loved one. For people like you who care deeply about animals and our community here is an opportunity to leave a lasting legacy.

Lee Richardson Zoo is often referred to as an oasis on the plains and is a favorite gathering spot for nearly a quarter million visitors each year. However, the zoo's rise to such a community distinction was no accident. Each progressive step we've taken was made possible through the generosity of people like you, people who recognize our unique role in not only protecting and preserving our natural treasures, but also in nurturing and sustaining this community.

Memorials are recognized in a variety of ways, which can be seen throughout the zoo. Benches, bricks or funding an exhibit are just a few of the ways memorials are used in the zoo. To make certain your gift will be utilized as you wish, we invite you to make an appointment so that we can discuss options with you and your family. Any number and all sizes of gifts are welcome and appreciated. We acknowledge each donation with a thank you letter and list them in our quarterly newsletter, Zoo Gnus. We also send the donor names and addresses to the family.
